

for your 22nd birthday
i got ~~you~~ a terry amiibo a zine about liking things your ex likes you taught me more about him

the games he's from

i like him too

with your help, i drew him with your help, he's my first physical print with your help, he's on my wall and yours

i saw him there at gamestop for $14.99

i texted you

i remember, before that,
you said
you had no interest in amiibos

i remember your disinterest in respecting me understanding me only loving what you wanted to see

there was one night
i remember
we playfully debated who loved more

we agreed that it was me
and we were right

it was awful

i thought about mailing him to you

i really did

even after we officially ended things

for all the things you've put me through, he's mine to keep

it hurts to look at him sometimes
i become reminded of you

but before all that, i like him too

i'll love him on my own terms,
my own way,
and forget about you
